of Clyde, hence July 13, S. S. Massa-And the short but by no means simple annals of Mr. John Bright might be briefly entitled "from the insane asylum to the Young Hotel, or how o be happy though crazy."

John Bright, to tell the story briefly, put on his hat and walked out of the pupule house straight to the Young Hotel, registered there, as John K. Baker, Jr., son of ex-Governor John K. Baker, ordered the best the house could furnish, and started in to have the time of his life. And he certainly had it. Bright was captured yesterday at the Palama Hospital, where he had been as a patient during all the time the police were so diligently looking for him. And if he saw the newspapers during that time he must have smiled might-ily in his sleeve at all the commotion was creating. Sheriff Jarrett has for a week been fairly sure that the man who had passed himself off here as a son of John K. Baker, of Hilo, was John Bright, but he wanted to be absolutely sure before saying anything about it. That his suspicions were correct was proved-yesterday when Bright, tangled in a net of his own prevarications, and unable to extricate himself, confessed

The story of Bright's apprehension is no less strange than the rest of the tale in which he is the central figure. On the day that the mysterious Mr. Baker so suddenly dropped from sight, the superintendent of the Palama hospital received a telephone message from a man who said that his name was Williams and who stated that he was the same Williams who had recently been a patient at the institution. He stated that during the day a young man would arrive at the hospital for treatment. This young man, he said, was the son of Sheriff Saffrey, of Mani. "You take him in and take care of him until he is cured," said the voice over the telephone, "and I will be responsible for the bill."

The same afternoon the supposed young Saffery arrived at the hospital was given a room there and treated for rheumatism, from which he was suffering.

All might have gone well with the enterprising youth if it had not been

Meantime, Mr. Williams walked into the hospital and was told that the young man he had sent up there was still in the institution. Mr. Williams, of course, denied ever having sent any during the June quarter of the past body to the hospital. He was taken four years as follows:
in and shown the spurious Saffery, but insisted that he had never seen the man before.

All this seemed very queer, and the $2,327.14; quarter ending June, 1906, was called an Shoriff Largett and told $3,341.38

All this seemed very queer, and the $2,327.14; quarter ending June, 1906, surse called up Sheriff Jarrett and told him that there was a man at the hose pital who said he was a son of Sheriff the County Engineer to call for bids Saffery and that he had been a guest for the construction of roads at Ka-at Sheriff Jarrett's house. Sheriff Jar-rett, of course, denied knowing the man, and said he would send an offieer out at once to look into the mat-

Chief of Detectives Joe Leal went out, but took the precaution of taking along with him Mrs. Caesar Vierra, who is a sister of Sheriff Saffery Mani. Mrs. Vierra, of course, did not recognize her supposed nephew, but he told so plausible a tale that he had her almost persuaded that he really was her nephew. But Chief Leal had been doing a little quiet looking about, and suddenly he came in from another room with a pair of shoes which he showed to the patient and asked whose they were. The man said they were his "Then, you're Baker," charged Leal. "I have another pair of shoes just like these that I found in your suitense at the Young Hotel."

The man was dumfounded but tried to bluff it out. But Leal was sure of his ground and it did not take long for him to make Bright come through

MUCH WORK FOR COUNTY DOCTOR

Physician $50 a month for incidental xpenses.

The mistake was made of introduc ing the resolution before the introduc-tion of the ordinance prescribing the duties of the County Physician. Had the ordinance been read first, the doctor would probably have gotten all that he asked and more too. As it was, Quinn objected to the allowance and action on the matter was deferred un-

The plumbing ordinance was to have The plumbing ordinance was to have come up for second reading, but J. C. Craig appeared before the Board and asked that certain changes be made. On motion of Supervisor Logan action on the ordinance was deferred and the chairman of the health committee was instructed to arrange for a public meeting at which Plumbing Inspector Michlstein will be present. A general invitation will be issued to all plumbers and contractors to attend and take part and contractors to attend and take part in the discussion.

Lively Argument,

The only excitement of the evening came when Logan introduced a resolu-tion changing the wording of the ap-propriation bill so as to make the $6000 appropriated for the care and repair of school houses not pro rata. As the ordinance passed the Board, the sum was divided up into six monthly instalments of $1000 each. Logan said that that arrangement was bad, in that it made it impossible to do all of the big repair work during vacation time, the only time that it could convenient ly be done. He wanted the ordinance so amended as to allow of the doing of the work at any time.

Kane thought he saw an attempt to soak all of the money into a few school-houses. He said that the County Engineer would probably spend the $6000 in one month and then would be nothing. He was called to turn rather sharply by Logan and final-ly subsided, though he cast his vote against the change. But it passed nevertheless, the vote standing three to two.

police committee submitted an estimate of the monthly provision supply needed at the County Jail. The figures are as follows:

Meat, 2200 pounds; crackers, 1500 Meat, 2200 pounds; crackers, 1200 pounds; salmon, 400 pounds; potatoes, 450 pounds; poi, 1800 pounds; onions, 200 pounds; pork, 200 pounds; rice, 400 pounds; beans, 120 pounds; salt, 150 pounds; soap, 120 pounds; coffee, 80 pounds; soap, 120 pounds; flour, 50 pounds; vegetables, $8.00; bread, 1400 loaves; coal, two and one-half tons; fire wood, one cord.

A resolution was passed directing the County Clerk to advertise for bids for a supply sufficient for six months.

Costly Slip.

Fifty-seven dollars and forty cents was appropriated to pay a judgment in favor of Marie K. Humphreys for a favor of Marie R. Humpareys for a tree destroyed by county officials. Untalked too much and to such purpose that he got himself into trouble. In conversation with the nurse he volunted that the sum of $5.00. No settle-for the sum of $5.00. No settle-for the sum of $5.00. that he got the information that he had been staying at the house of Sheriff Jarrett! And Sheriff Jarrett was at that very time industriously looking for the man who said he was his guest.

Meantime Mr. Williams walked in the resolution introduced at a resolution

In reply to the protest filed by John Emmeluth & Co. against the action of the police commission in awarding the contract for supplies for the county jail to W. W. Dimond & Co., when that concern was not the lowest bidder, the committee reported that the award had been made to Dimond after careful consideration of all details. It admitted that in some cases Dimond was not the lowest bidder, but that the articles bid on were such as were needed, something that was not true of the bids of some of the others.

Mayor Fern addressed a letter to the Board, stating that the Governor was desirous of having those city employes, who are members of the National Guard rifle team ordered to the target shoot at Camp Perry, Ohio, granted leave of absence. There was some question as to whether the leave should include pay. Quinn thought that it should and moved that the request be granted, saying that the city and county is much indebted to the Governor and that it should extend any courtesy possible. The requested any courtesy possible. The requested leave of absence was therefore granted.

appeared, and laughed at the efforts made to find him. Pupule House Graduate.

Sheriff Jarrett, however, tells a different story. According to the information he has, Bright was convicted some time ago in Hilo of gross cheat and sentenced to ten months in jail. After he had served only a week or two of his sentence, he was adjudged in sane and sent to the Insane Asylum at Honolulu. Here he was kept for gross cheat at Hilo and has not served out his sentence, it is probable that

DISCHARGED

These are the men who voted to acquit the ten Japanese rioters, despite the evidence of guilt that was present-ed before them in Judge Robinson's department of the Circuit Court:

J. S. Azevedo, Albert Ludloff, George E. Bruns, William F. Buckle, Moreno

Hulu, Daniel H. Voeller.

The jurors voting for the conviction of the rioters were William L. Austin, Frederick Goudie, George Harbottle, John Jones, John Legros and Fritz Moyers. Meyers. Hopelessly divided and with no pos-
